Support Process - Making Moments Matter

How LoveWell serves our patients

Hospice care is provided to people that have a life expectancy of 6 months or less and choose comfort and relief from pain and other symptoms. It is a benefit, but also a choice.

Who Benefits from Hospice?

People who have tried curative measures and are ready to focus on comfort and pain management or avoid extreme life-sustaining measures.

Hospice benefits people with terminal illnesses and their loved ones by providing compassionate, holistic care that prioritizes comfort, dignity, and emotional support at end of life

Hospice care is the preferred choice for the following people with a limited life expectancy diagnosis like:

- Alzheimer's Disease
- Cancer
- Cardiovascular Disease
- HIV/AIDS
- Liver/Gastrointestinal Disease
- Neurological Disease
- Pulmonary Disease
- Renal Disease
- Stroke
- Other

Who Pays for Hospice?

- Medicare and Medicaid
- Most insurance companies

Where is Hospice Provided:

Care is provided primarily in the patient's place of residence, whether in the family home, nursing facility or assisted living environment.
